The question of whether or not Chaustauqua should be taxed will be a subject for discussion at the municipalities' convention to be held in Medicine Hat on October the 9th. Mayor Hardie, of Lethbridge, is of opinion that were the Chaustauqua taxed it would result in one of two things, either the Chaustauqua would not come at all or it would raise the price of tickets, in which event the people of the town themselves would be paying the tax.

The French Farmers
Saved The Day

The saving farmer, is a national asset. Canadian progress today is a result of the tests magnificently to the splendid qualities of thrift that have marked the farmers in all the provinces. The total returns from field crops and animal products have been only possible because of the disposition to make use in an economical way of all the wonderful gifts of Providence in this good land of ours.

The same was abundantly true after 1870 in France when the frugal, thrifty farmers of that fair land made it possible for the Republic to pay off that hated German war indemnity of two billion francs levied against them. The same spirit of national thrift built up France for the extreme test today—a test that is being tried by fire.

Thanks be, French, wherein is proving true. The line is holding. The blood of the farmers is flowing equally as well through the veins of France's daughters of the soil and so the national strength holds but does not lose.

Canada is reaping her harvest of increased returns and money is being made as never before. Our farmers are earning the gratitude of all in their splendid efforts at production. That they will carry into their savings or original foresight in conserving their surplus against the future days of darkness and lower prices will be equally praiseworthy. He is well advised who saves his extra dollar until he sees which way the winds of tomorrow will blow. Adversity breeds a child blind where there is no dollar in the savings.

Keeping Biennial
Vegetables for Seed

By the term "biennial", vegetables are meant one which takes two seasons to produce seed, writes the Dominion Horticulturist in a recent advice on

The "Selection and Wintering of Biennial Vegetables for Seed" which can be had free from the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa. The vegetables must be stored over the first winter and replanted for seed production the following spring. Some well-known vegetables of this class are beets, cabbages, carrots, celery, endive, parsley, and turnips. Seed from these can easily be grown in Canada if the vegetables to be so used are kept in good condition over the winter. Unless a rigid selection is made, each year, of specimens which are true to type, it will not be long before a larger proportion of the crop will be not true to type; hence great care should be taken to select well-shaped, undecomposed roots, typical of the variety, of beets, carrots, parsnips, parsley, and turnips, firm-headed cabbages true to type, firm stalked and disease-resistant plants of celery, and firm, shapely onion bulbs. If this is done and varieties are kept far enough from others so that they will not cross the crop, Canadian growers will be able to produce seed favorably with imported seed in regard to purity, as it does in other characteristics.

The methods of wintering vegetables for seed will vary in different parts of Canada, but in most cases it will be necessary to give them some protection. When possible, it is best to store them in a frost-proof cellar. But, if necessary, the vegetables may be stored outside, both in small and in large quantities, except in the case of onions, which must be kept dry, and stored in a cool place where there is little or no frost.

APPLICATION FOR LEASE OF

Bellevue Happenings

Rob Tennant came up from Lethbridge during the week.

Miss Maggie Burrows was a visitor here during the week.

R. T. Johnson paid a business visit to Calgary during the week.

J. Roberts has moved to Taber where he has secured some interest.

Steve Humble reports good fishing. "It's only he can catch 'em, as we don't worry."

Bob Cummins left Sunday night for Wayne, where we understand he has secured a position.

Mrs. Berlyshire, who was visiting here, the guest of Mrs. R. T. Johnson, returned home to Ferris on Sunday last.

Harry Harrison, C.P.R. agent at Hillcrest, is away to Vancouver on a vacation. Mr. Reid is acting as agent during Mr. Harrison's absence.

Mr. A. L. Freebairn, of Pincher Creek, will be at Haddad Bros' store this week end, with a full display of ladies ready-to-wear garments.

Last week we reported the arrival of a daughter to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Haddad, Bellevue. We have since been informed that she's a soldier instead of a Red Cross nurse.

The Horticultural Club wishes to convey their thanks to the Bellevue Orchestra for the splendid musical program rendered by them at the exhibition on Labor Day; also to the ladies who kindly assisted in arranging the war souvenirs, exhibits, etc.

William Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Randall, who sustained a broken leg and other injuries in a runaway several months ago, has been obliged to go to Rochester for special treatment by Mayo Bros. and left for that point Sunday night accompanied by his mother.

Messrs. Haddad Bros. have purchased a site from the West Canadian Collieries, almost directly opposite their present store in Bellevue, and adjoining the site of the old Bellevue hotel, on which they have started to build a store. The new building will be of rather large proportions, of two stories and about 31 by 60 feet in size, and will be quite an addition to the business section of Bellevue.

The church will be fittingly decorated for the occasion and the concert promises to be exceptionally good.

One night recently a certain man who has a large cache of booze in Fernie discovered that somebody had got away with two cases of the liquor. He therefore decided that he would watch the following night and capture the thieves. Soon after dark he took up his guard duty, but the night was cold and chilly and from time to time he would fortify himself for the occasion until at length he fell asleep. When he awoke he discovered to his chagrin that two more cases had disappeared.

An impressive memorial service was held at Central Union church on Sunday evening in memory of the late Private Mark Horn Harrison, killed in action. Mark was well-known throughout The Pass, being of a genial and kindly disposition. He enlisted with the formation of the 192nd battalion, and words of highest commendation have been received from officers under whom he served "over there." The sympathy of the entire Pass goes out to the bereaved parents and brothers and sisters in the great loss they have sustained.

Lieut. A. C. Kemmis, of Fincher Creek, has been wounded in action. Lieut. Kemmis was at one time commanding officer of the Alberta Rangers. He held the rank of lieutenant-colonel when the war broke out, but owing to certain difficulties was deprived of that rank. Later he turned up in Winnipeg and enlisted as a private. He went to the front and through ability and gallantry won his commission as a lieutenant.

Two tramps, sitting by the road side at dusk, were indulging in an imaginary game of poker, in which the pebble played the part of a card. One of them was a downfallen college graduate; the other just an ordinary tramp, named Pat.

Said the latter, "I'll just bet you a thousand dollars as an opener."

The college graduate replied "I'll raise you a million."

"Makes it a billion," said Pat.

"Raises you a hundred billion."

"Two hundred billion," said Pat.

"Seventeen quadrillion."

Pat scratched his head for a minute. Then—"Take the pot, you educated son of-a-gun."

On account of the warm weather, the Blairmore opera house has only been showing pictures three nights a week, but hereafter pictures will be shown four nights or more. Mr. C. W. Johnston made a flying trip to Calgary on Tuesday and booked "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin." We understand that one of the film companies tipped him off that this would be his only chance to book this great picture this fall, hence the trip. The other pictures booked by Mr. Johnston are "Romeo and Juliet," "The Doctor and the Woman," "The Flame of the Yukon," "William Hart in 'The Bargain,'" "The Two-Souled Woman," "To Hell with the Kaiser," and "The Sinking of the Lusitania," which will be shown in the order named.

What Blairmore Council Did Last Night

The meeting of the Blairmore Council last night was attended by Mayor Beale, Councillors Johnston, Ross, Lague and Duff, and Secretary Wright.

The minutes of the previous meeting were approved, and a communication from the secretary of the Union of Alberta, Municipality, requesting that the council be represented at the annual convention at Medicine Hat on October 9th and 10th, was ordered filed.

Accounts totalling in the neighborhood of $850 were passed for payment.

Councillor Duff introduced a by-law to raise the water rate, and a motion was moved that an increase of 25% in water rates be made, but failed to get a second to the motion, so the matter dropped at that.

Councillor Ross introduced a motion. It seems that about June last Ross's premises were harrying two dogs, and that following order from the sanitary inspector he killed or disposed of one of the dogs and kept the other until the month of August, contrary to a municipal by-law. His dog was detected a few weeks ago, and Ross was given twenty-four hours to knock the wind out of him, which he did. Councillor Ross moved that a fine of $100 be levied on him for disobeying the by-law, but because he was compelled to do so, and is after every other pig at town. The matter of the dog was then dropped, everyone should be treated alike, and that it wasn't good to "give Ross a fine." Mary nothink. He suggested that the chief of police notify all pigs that are not to associate with the people in the town, but must keep outside the limits. The chief of police will do the rest.

The question of street lighting engaged the council for about one hour. Resolutions were passed for the running of an independent service wire from the town to the power house at Victoria Street and Fifth Avenue, which with the laying up of new poles, installation of lamps, etc., would cost the town in the neighborhood of $10,000. The council decided to get in a few temporary switches instead, and to place lights at five points along Victoria Street and at the River bridge on Sixth Avenue.

The medical health officer complained of a stable adjoining the house of E. Segun, which harbored chickens, rabbits, etc., and was a menace to the health of that district. The chief of police will notify the owner to have this place removed.

Councillor Duff gave notice that at the next meeting of the council he would introduce a by-law to appoint a medical health officer for the balance of 1918.

Capt. Stephen Allan, son of Mr. Thoburn Allan, of Calgary, had been killed in action.

Herbert Robinson, of "Come Through," a great descriptive picture, soon.

Thanksgiving Day this year has been fixed by the governor-general for Monday, October 14.

The local secretary of the Red Cross Society acknowledges receipt of the sum of $14.15, being the net proceeds of a collection taken at a football game on Wednesday evening between Frank and Blairmore teams.
